County Chooses East Route

BY TROY MARTIN

Randall County commissioners court Monday endorsed an I-27 Canyon by-pass route which would leave the Canyon Expressway in the neighborhood of Stuckey's to the north and angle to a South Washington junction about three miles south of the Washington-Palo Duro Road intersection.

From this intersection Washington would become I-27 to Happy.

The by-pass route endorsed would intersect the Palo Duro Road about two miles east of Canyon.

Both Commissioners Clarence Beckman and Glenn Dowlen voiced objection but finally voted for the endorsement.

Beckman said he thought the by-pass should skirt Canyon to the west. Dowlen favored use of Washington from Amarillo to Happy. Dowlen explained that if Washington were used for the U.S. highway it would not be necessary to procure more right of way.

This route has not even been proposed by the Highway Department. County Judge Carroll Brown said a public hearing probably will be scheduled some time next month.

The Canyon city commission has discussed the matter but has not yet made a choice.

The Highway Department last fall received funds for an interstate route from Amarillo to Lubbock. After extensive survey work, the department has proposed five possible by-pass routes.

One route would follow U.S. 87 through 23rd Street in Canyon. Another would leave U.S. 87 about 3.2 miles north of Canyon, head to the east and curve around the city about one mile from the city limits.

A third would leave U.S. 87 at the same spot, and pass Canyon at the edge of the eastern city limits. A fourth route would by-pass Canyon by way of South Washington. This is the route endorsed by commissioners court.

The only western by-pass proposed would leave U.S. 87 3.2 miles north of the city and curve through the western portion of Canyon. This is the proposal favored by Beckman.

Beckman later said he would look with favor on using Washington Street right of way from Amarillo to Happy.

In other business, the court approved election judges for the upcoming general election to be held in November.

These include Walter Shelly, absentee; Melvin Schaeffer, Prencinct 1, Fairview Community Hall; R.B. Gist, Jr., Precinct 2, Ralph Switch Elevator; Mrs. Erwin J. Davis, Precinct 3, Jowell School; W. P. Sales Tax Check Due

Canyon's check from the state of Texas for sales taxes collected during the second quarter of 1970 will total $13,145.95.

The check is to arrive in Canyon today.

The amount is well below the total anticipated by city officials, who allowed in this year's budget for a gain of $60,000 in extra revenues from the sales tax.

It is well below early speculations by officials that the one per cent sales tax in Canyon could produce more than $100,000 annually, beginning this year.

However, the second quarter is expected to produce the least amount of revenue. Sales tax returns are expected to increase for the other three quarters.

The second quarter includes April, May and June.

Only items taxed by the state with its sales tax are subject to the city sales tax. The state collects the city's tax and returns it within three months after the quarter is completed. In return, the state extracts a percentage of the taxes collected for collection fee.

The state comptroller's office in Austin released the $13,000 figure Tuesday.

If sales tax revenues do not reach the $60,000 mark, the city budget could be in economic straits.

The tax must produce at least about $30,000 to make up for city revenue lost when commissioners lowered the local tax rate upon passage of the sales tax.

The city sales tax was first charged in April here.

Canyon's collected revenue from the second quarter, although lower than expected, is about on par with revenue received through the tax by Texas cities of similar population.

Colorado City collected about $12,500 for its second quarter in 1969. Crystal City collected about $12,000. Georgetown collected $14,008, Gladewater received $13,440, Lockhart gained $14,400, Seminole received $14,480, and Sinton received $14,837.

City sales tax revenues here are expected to increase significantly for the fourth quarter of the year--October, November and December.

As a rule state-wide in 1969, cities gained as much as $3,000 in the fourth quarter over that collected in the second quarter.

Winless WSU Shockers To Invade Buff Country

Wichita State's Shockers, winless after two starts this season, come to Buffalo Bowl Saturday night for a match with the West Texas State University Buffaloes, winless after one start.

The Shockers, who have won only two games of their last 12, will be looking for a break in a long drouth. The Buffs will be looking for an important win against the first Missouri Valley Conference opponent West Texas has played since becoming a full-fledged member of the league last summer.

Wichita State boasts a premier back in Randy Jackson, one of 22 returning lettermen.

Last year's Shockers lost 24-14 to the Buffs. They meet this year at 8 p.m.

The Buffaloes returned to the field Monday and the chief order of the week was to correct mistakes which dearly cost the Buffs during their season opener last Saturday against Lamar Tech's Cardinals.

Playing in hot, humid weather at Beaumont, the Buffaloes fell, 33-28.

"All of our players performed well at times, but lack of consistancy hindered our efforts many times," said head coach Joe Kerbel, who has already switched his look from Lamar Tech to the Buffs' home opener Saturday night against the Wichita State University Shockers.

The Buffaloes gave up the football two times Saturday night with fumbles, twice saw passes intercepted and were penalized a whopping 143 yards.

"Our lack of experience on both our offensive and defensive lines showed itself Saturday night," said Kerbel. "On the other hand, I was pleased with the efforts we made in coming back from a 19-0 margin late in the third quarter."

The Buffaloes scored three touchdowns in the final two minutes and 37 seconds of the third quarter to take a 21-19 advantage and increased the lead to 28-19 early in the fourth quarter, only to see the Cardinals complete two long passes and score twice more to win the game.

Ralph "Rocky" Thompson paced the Buffalo ground game, which totaled 231 yards, with 98 yards on 12 carries and scored one touchdown. Fullback Ramse Faleafine bulled his way for 92 yards in 22 attempts.

Roping Competition To Aid Bowie Wesley Memorial

Bowie Wesley Memorial Roping will be held in Happy Saturday and Sunday at 2:00 p.m. in the new arena south of town.

The roping sponsored by the Happy Rodeo Association, is dedicated to the memory of Bowie Wesley who was killed in a pickup, trailer-car accident near Hardin, Montana last July. Wesley was born and raised in the Happy area. He had been a member of the Rodeo Cowboys Association for three years, specializing in roping events. Wesley was named Rookie of the Year in 1968 by RCA. A portion of the gate admission will go the Bowie Wesley Memorial fund.

Saturday's schedule of events will begin with matched roping followed by open calf roping. Tuffy Thompson of Happy will be featured in a 10-head match with Wade Lewis of Hereford.

Sunday's action will start with open steer roping. Following that event will be open team roping with a three-head average.

Cowboys will be competing for approximately $10,000 in prize money.

A Navajo saddle blanket will be given to the man that ropes the eight fastest head of cattle during the two-day period and a pair of bridle bits will be awarded to each individual roper with the fastest time each day.

All contests will be run according to the RCA roping regulations and no RCA black list contestants will be 7 ASCS Committees Named; Convention Fri.

Seven Randall County communities have named ASCS committees and have set 9 o'clock Friday morning for the county convention to be held at the ASCS office in Canyon.

A successor for Emil Olson, whose term expires, to the county committee will be named at the convention. Holdover members of the committee include Jack Frost and Forrest Gruner.

Herbert Kuhlman has been elected chairman of the Canyon community committee with Charles Conatser, vice chairman; Billy Bible, member; and Marshall Rockwell and David Horn, alternates.

Clayton Devin was named chairman of the Sunny-Hill-Fairview committee with John Robinson, vice chairman; Simon Elliott, member; and Lewel Johnston and Tom Henry, alternates.

Lawrence Hermesmeyer was selected chairman of the Trigg-Zita committee with Herman Northrup, vice chairman; Henry Bassett, member and Joe Detten and Clinton Glenn, alternates.

Lynn Bennett was elected chairman of the Stone committee with Harold Erwin, vice chairman; Thomas Triplett, member; and John Upshaw and Orville Ladehoff, alternates.

Stickers supporting West Texas State University's Buffaloes have gone on sale for $1 at the WT Athletic Department and the football office. Deby Cox, a WT freshman from Sweetwater, places one of the stickers on the rear bumper of her car. The stickers resemble those published by the Dallas Cowboys. They are maroon and white in color.

Eagles Will Tackle 4A Caprock Longhorns

Canyon's Eagles meet their first AAAA competition in the tough Caprock Longhorns at 7:30 p.m. Friday in Dick Bivins Stadium in Amarillo.

The Eagles come from a rugged 7-6 loss last Friday to Spearman. The Longhorns were pounced 36-20 last weekend by a strong El Paso team.

In preparing for Caprock, Coach Dunny Goode must sharpen the Eagles' defenses against the passing and running attack expected from the Longhorns.

Caprock Coach Ray Basinger has two quarterbacks, Marty Blacklock and Mike Lazano, both of whom can pass or run with the ball.

He boasts some fine runners in the backfield, too, with good depth at each position.

Basinger, who is in his second year as head Longhorn coach, sees Canyon as a strong team with good ability in the passing and running departments.

He said he expects tough going against Canyon's staunch defensive unit.

Brooks Nets Sentences Downstate

Curtis Frank Brooks, assessed a 99-year prison term here for raping a South Amarillo housewife, has received two more 99-year terms and two life terms in trials in Dallas and Fort Worth.

Sheriff's Deputy Merle Strickland, who was in touch with prosecutors in Dallas and Fort Worth last week, said the sentences were all passed on rape cases.

He was tried in district court in Randall County during the summer.

Wilkerson Examining Trial Postponed For Witness

Emmett Leon Wilkerson of 4200 Washington in Amarillo, charged with assault with intent to murder in connection with an early September shoot-out, will have an examining trial as soon as the complaining witness is released from the hospital.

Randall County Asst. Dist. Atty. Dick Dambold said Tuesday the examining trial will be scheduled when Louis Monroe Johnson of 4624 Western is physically able to appear in the courtroom.

Johnwon was shot in the stomach with a pistol.

Wilkerson is charged with the shooting. Johnson is Wilkerson's father-in-law. The examining trial will be conducted by Randall County Justice of the Peace W.A. "Bill" Wilson.

Blustery Winter Wind Lowers Temperatures Through County

A wet and wintry wind storm blew into Randall County about 8:30 a.m. Tuesday plunging temperatures to unseasonable lows.

Strong winds accompanied the cold front into the area as did grey clouds and light mist and little rain.

City residents donned heavy winter coats to battle the chill and household heaters were ignited after a hot and dry summer.

In Canyon, the temperature Tuesday plunged more than 30 degrees under Monday afternoon's high.

Monday afternoon's high was 91 degrees. The high temperature during the afternoon Tuesday was 54 degrees.

By nightfall Tuesday the temperature had dropped to just above 40 degrees in the city. The temperature early Wednesday morning was 42 degrees.

Very light rains fell and only traces of moisture were reported.

Some areas of the Panhandle reportedly received light snow. Other areas were under tornado watch Tuesday.

The U.S. Weather Bureau for today calls for highs in the 80s and lows in the 40s. Clear skies are forecast. Winds will be southwesterly.

COVERING FUMBLES

FROM THE CANYON RIM

by Troy Martin

Before little towns get too excited about losing their postmark, I say let's give the post office a chance to see if the move really works.

The method now being used is the processing of mail at larger central points to effect a saving in labor and machinery.

Most of us have been yelling for economy, especially in the Postal System. The US mail is still one of the most inexpensive services to the individual that we purchase and most of us use it.

What the Post Office Department is doing is about the same thing that private business is doing. Look at Associated Groceries. This simply is a group of independent groceries pooling their buying power and using a central warehousing facility that none of them could afford individually.

Small newspapers are doing the same thing. Most of the newspapers in the Panhandle are printed on central presses located at Hereford and Amarillo.

If private enterprise can effect a savings through this means, then why don't we at least give the Post Office Department a chance to do the same thing.

If after a trial run the service is intolerably slow then we might have something to cry about, but for now let's give it a chance.

* * *

Junk mail is another thing I would like to see the Post Office crack down on. Almost every day my post office box is full of junk that I don't even scan before tossing it into the waste basket.

This mail has no community service aspect and should be paying it's own way through the postal system. For that matter, all mail including newspapers, should be paying its way.

Then we should expect fast, efficient service.

Randall County commissioners court endorsed Route "A" for the I-27 by-pass of Canyon Monday. This route appears the most logical on the surface but is it?

The route cuts off from the E-Way about at Stuckey's north of Canyon and slants to South Washington street where it goes on south to Happy for another junction with US 87.

The proposed route around the west edge of Canyon, Route "E", deserves some study. The choice of routes is far too serious to allow for shooting from the hip by those who must make the decision.

H.M. Baggerly of the Tulia Herald had some very derogatory remarks about General George Patton in his newspaper over the past few weeks.

I mailed Mr. Baggerly a copy of the feature stories The News carried with remarks from those who served under General Patton's command. I have not heard from the bard of Tulia since.

* * *

For some reason the Panhandle area distrusts Amarillo. I don't know why but this distrust is evident in the fact that for the past three decades that city, which should be the Panhandle's leader, has not been able to elect anyone to a high state or national office.

The whole Panhandle has suffered as a result. Lubbock to the South has produced during the same period a state attorney general, a governor and the most powerful congressman in America.

I am talking, of course, about Waggoner Carr, Preston Smith and George H. Mahon.

I think Amarillo still looks upon itself as a small town. It is still competing with Vega, Groom, Canyon and Hereford. The leadership in Lubbock rejoices if Levelland gets an industry and the folks in Amarillo should rejoice when Borger or Pampa gets a new plant.

It's about time we quit battling each other and start working together.

* * *

If we don't start working together across the Panhandle we might find ourselves without any representation at all in the Texas Senate.

There is a plan afoot to cut the Panhandle down the middle when the state's senatorial districts are reshaped. If this happens the west portion will be represented in the Senate by Doc Blanchard of Lubbock and the east portion by Jack Hightower of Vernon.

This is not a remote possibility. It is something that could happen to us in the next two years!

* * *

Preston Smith has made Texas a good governor. He has been exceptionally good to Canyon and West Texas State University. He deserves our support in November.

It was Preston Smith who last year was as good as his word and signed into law a measure giving WTSU a separate board of regents and making it a university in fact.

* * *

There is a rumor going around that Max Sherman is a George McGovern supporter.

I put the question straight to Max Tuesday. He denied it flatly.

"I have never supported Senator McGovern and I do not contemplate ever supporting him," said Sherman, a candidate for the Texas Senate from the 31st district.

Carroll Wilson is going into the service early next month to serve as an Army officer. He will be gone two years.

Carroll is one of the finest young newspapermen with whom it has been my privilege to work. He and his wife, Susan, adopted Canyon as their home and I am looking forward to their return when their tour of duty has been completed.

Law Officers In Courses At University

Twelve West Texas law enforcement officers started a four-week basic police school on the campus of West Texas State University Monday.

The course, conducted by the Texas A&M Extension Service, is designed to qualify officers under a new state law passed by the last session of the legislature.

The law requires policemen to complete a minimum of 140 classroom hours of studies within one year of joining a local force.

Our World

BY ANN BROWN

Investigating committees appointed by the President, at such tremendous cost to American taxpayers, have brought in some practical and constructive reports during the past decades, but surely the latest has reached the apex in social progress. According to Martin L. Gross, the National Commission on Alternatives to Current Criminal and Penal Statutes and Law Enforcement and Rehabilitation Practices has decided the only way to eliminate crime is to legalize it.

Why hadn't someone thought of this simple solution sooner? There should be no doubt of its effectiveness; look how beautifully repealing the 18th Amendment took care of our liquor problems.

These giants of expertise are alleged to have as their leader a former congressman who entered penal work after seven years of practical experience in the field serving time in a federal prison for embezzlement. It's doubtful if a man more concerned for the welfare of criminals could have been found; and that is the burning issue, is it not? The welfare of law-abiding citizens is the concern only of radicals and bigots.

The Commission on Crime is supposedly composed of 60 sociologists, phychologists, criminologists, and theologians. Would anyone care to speculate how many $millions those sixty learned gentlemen have charged the taxpayers to discover that the taxpayers themselves are the culprits?

In working and saving to acquire goods and monies that the criminal wants, the honest citizen has forced the poor, deprived unfortunate to take it away from him. If a square skull gets cracked, or a policeman gets shot in this inevitable interchange, that is merely an occupational hazard.

But if a burglar gets booby trapped, that is capitalistic oppression. And if a policeman forcibly restrains a criminal caught in the act, or shoots a fleeing felon, that is police brutality.

Everyone is searching for ways to economize during these inflated times. The experts admit more money and property may be lost to criminals by legalizing crime, but they assure us the loss will be more than offset through all the money saved by eliminating police departments, courts, and jails.

Think of the $millions the taxpayers of California could have saved on just two trials (Manson and Sirhan). Multiply that by the number of murders occurring in California daily, and the savings simply stagger the imagination. The taxpayers in Houston and Dallas will no doubt give the Crime Commission a vote of undying gratitude.

The Committee seems to have overlooked the rapists in their brilliant solution to crime. But it would be consistent with their other proposals for every man to simply make his wife and daughters available on demand. Then there would be no harm done--at least not to the criminals, and they are the primary objects of concern.

The muggers and sadists will no doubt lose all anti-social desires as soon as their activities become legal. When the victims quit resisting--and surely they will when there is no longer a law against assault--it will probably take all the fun out of bashing in skulls anyway.

Vandalism will surely go out of style, too. What fun would there be in smashing plate glass windows, wrecking public parks, school buildings, and churches if it were not against the law?

This latest report from the President's Commission deserves the most careful consideration. Anyone who questions its validity should note how effective leniency has been on crime in the past. And then remember our classic example: Hasn't legal liquor solved all our alcohol problems? If this brilliant proposal eliminates crime as effectively as Repeal eliminated liquor, our criminal problems are surely over.

Midi Makes Mixed Debut At High School

BY TERRY JO REYNOLDS AND KAYSEE MARTIN

The midi made its debut into Canyon High School Tuesday. We selected the midi dresses, loaned to us by Warren's and thus began our great adventure.

TERRY JO

I agreed to try this as a favor for a friend. Rather doubtful at first we made our plans.

My outfit was a coat and dress ensemble with knee boots.

We bravely donned our outfits and stepped out in to the Commons of Canyon High School. The first reactions were wide and varied:

"Is that yours?" asked a stunned looking sophomore.

"I like it," said Cindy Blanton.

I smiled rather doubtfully and carried on.

The next comments came from the male population:

"I dig 'em," said Lee Daniels.

"You look better in a mini." Charles Stoker.

"I like the color--but I don't like the dress," James Boyce.

"What are you wearing?" asked David Wilkerson.

Do you like it? "Um." Coach Wade.

The most flattering comment came from the Assistant principle, Mr. York, "Real, real nice, girls."

Most of the feminine reaction was slightly more vocal:

"I love it!" Lois Kelln.

"I think it is cute." Sheri Stribline.

There were also those people who had to be humorous.

"You look like Mary Poppins." said Devery Dampf.

"What do ya'll have those on for?" Nancy Winn.

Personally, I think the midi is great! I was rather skeptical at first, but now I really like them. I think the mini is fine, the maxi has a sort of classic elegance, but the midi is feminine, and dramatic.

KAYSEE

I'll admit that I was a bit doubtful about committing the rash act of actually wearing a midi to school. But, I mustered up my courage and marched bravely into what I thought would be a battle against derogatory remarks.

I wore a pant suit. The dress was red, black, and white plaid with a wide black belt at the waist. It was about an inch below my knees. The pants were red.

The reactions were somewhat surprising. I expected to get remarks like "How ugly!" or "Yuk!" Some kids did say things to that effect. Alton Allen was asked what he thought of our clothes. He replied, "You want me to tell you the truth? They're not worth it!" Diana Holcomb said, "I'll stick with mini!" But, there were those who were very complimentary. Jannifer Cockrell said, "It's precious!" "I love 'em!" was Peggy Adams' opinion. Becky Baldridge had a divided opinion about our outfits. She said, "I like them with pants, but I don't like the dresses." Comment similar to these went on all day. Everybody had an opinion.

When the idea of wearing a midi was proposed to me, my attitude was completely negative. After wearing the pant suit that I did, I'm all for the midi revolution.

We returned to the world of minis with a feeling of satisfaction and accomplishment. It will be much easier next time we don our midis.

The highly-competitive scholarships are awarded students for academic and leadership merit.

They pay for all tuition, books, fees and $50 per month for the student.

Museum Tests Drawing Power Of Money

The Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum is seeing this month just how much drawing power money has.

They are catering to the idea that there is something fascinating about money.

Not all of it is negotiable in today's marketplace, even though most of it is negotiable in collectors' circles.

Bills and coins dating from the time Texas was a sovereign country through its statehood, into the Civil War and through today are on display in the museum's art gallery.

Most of the money displayed from the era of the Republic of Texas is dated around 1840. The bills range in denomination from $1, $2, through $100 and $500.

Different artistic styles are used on each denomination and sometimes on bills of the same denomination. Some bills bear the legend "Government of Texas." Others say "The Republic of Texas." Some were issued from Austin. Others from Houston.

A large collection of bills issued by various states and the Government of the Confederate States is on display.

Bills from Tennessee, Georgia, Alabama, North Carolina and Arkansas are shown. They range in size from very small to larger than today's bills.

Also displayed in the Confederate collection is a 50-cent note issued in 1863 to be paid six months after the ratification of a peace treaty between the feuding states.

In the display of United States coins and bills are pennies dating back to 1828, one-half cents dating to 1856, two-cent pieces dated 1864, three-cent pieces dated from 1857 to 1870.

A half-dime dated 1853 is displayed.

Bills of various ages are in the collection.

The coins and bills displayed are only a small part of the museum's collection. Plans are in the mill to display coins from around the world in the art gallery.

The collection will be on display about a month.

Exchange Program Eyed For WT

Business School Communication Course

The School of Business at West Texas State University will initiate a new major program in international communications upon approval of the program by the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System.

Dr. C.C. Callarman, dean of the school, said in anticipation the program may be approved, a member of the school's council of executive consultants is in Mexico in an effort to arrange an exchange program for students and faculty members.

Callarman said the new program is sought for the university due to the pressing demand by business for persons trained in the languages, customs and economies of foreign countries.

He said with the advent of the Amarillo area as a major port for the exporting of beef products and grain products, many of the persons with this training will be needed.

F.V. Wallace, a member of the school's Council of Executive Consultants, is visiting in Mexico this week. While there, he will meet with various university officials in efforts to set up an exchange program so students here can learn of language, customs and economics first-hand. Faculty members would participate in the program, also.

Bright Spots Seen In Dry County Agriculture Picture

BY JOHN BRAZZIL
County Agent

Randall County's twenty million dollar plus agricultural industry has been affected by what many observers describe as a record dry summer yet bright spots still prevail.

A near normal wheat crop was harvested in June. Averages of about 37 bushels per acre on irrigated land and 12 to 15 bushels per on dryland were reported in most areas. The wheat crop was sustained by excellent suboil reserves from moisture received last fall. Several wheat producers chose to graze out wheat with cattle rather than to harvest grain.

There will be little harvest of dryland grain sorghum this year. Many producers could not plant due to dry seedbeds. Most dryland fields which were seeded will be grazed.

The irrigated grain sorghum crop looks very good at this time. About 35,000 acres should be harvested with a yield approaching 100 bushels per acre. The grain quality appears to be superior with good sized grains and well filled heads. Peak harvest is expected in mid-October.

Soybeans, sugarbeets, and cotton are minor crops in Randall County but these irrigated crops appear to be at or above normal in expected quality and yield.

The gross sale of crops from Randall County's farmers have been averaging near 7 million dollars annually. Prices received this fall for a little smaller total marketing will determine this year's gross.

The gross sales of livestock and livestock products from Randall County's farms and ranches have been growing until the total is near 16 million dollars annually. Most farmers handle cattle.

The first six months of 1970 was profitable for stocker-feeder cattle producers who made good use of small grain pastures for cheap gains. On January 1, 1970, the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service showed that Randall County had 136,000 head of cattle on our farms, ranches, and feedlots. This reporting service shows Randall County to be 5th among all Texas counties in total cattle and 6th among all counties in cattle on feed.

The total feedlot industry has experienced some ups and downs in their operations as gain costs have moved upward with tight margins between feeders and fat cattle. Some lots have been operating with reduced capacity. The total feeding industry appears to be sound with the continued development of transportation, marketing, and processing facilities.

There has been some reduction in the number of cow-calf operations and in the number of cows for breeding purposes.

Swine producers started the year with growing numbers and strong prices. Recent nation-wide increases in swine have put pressure on market prices and the present price is about 30% below prices received last winter.

Milk producers are having a good year. Dairymen have been working hard through marketing associations to gain market power for their product. Dairying is a million dollar plus industry in Randall County.

Ranges and pastures have been dry and mostly unproductive this simmer. The prospect for hay and dry forages for winter is dismal. Some hay is being brought in from other areas and irrigated grain sorghum stover will be salvaged for winter use.

At this time the fields which for the past two years have been green with winter small grains are dry. Since small grain pastures have been the basis upon which the growing stocker-feeder operations have been built, this area is suffering. Some wheat in a scattered area is up to a fair stand. Some irrigated fields are now being watered. Many farmers have dry seeded wheat in hopes of gaining a little time when the rains do come.

Randall County's agricultural producers have been receiving about 4 million dollars per year in recent years for participation in government programs to control production. The present legislation expires with this crop year. Policy making groups at all levels are active in supporting their views on proposed legislation.

Two good rains are badly needed in Randall County; one good one to insure planting moisture for wheat and another good one to settle the ground and root the wheat for winter pasture.

Eagles Must Rebound From 7-6 Lynx Win

Some of the Canyon Eagles found the going tough psychologically when the home team met the AA Spearman Lynx last Friday night, according to Coach Dunny Goode.

"Spearman had a good football team," he said. "They played good football. We knew they were going to be ahead of time. Our kids knew it, but probably because Spearman is AA some sold them short."

It was the second loss of the season for the Eagles, who dropped their first game to Clovis 6-0. The 7-6 loss to Spearman was no easier to take.

As in the first game, Canyon came but ahead in many statistical departments. They just didn't shine in the scoring department.

Statistically, here's how Spearman and Canyon ranked:

Canyon made 10 first downs while the Lynx made nine. Canyon tallied 83 yards rushing and 66 passing for total rushing of 149 yards. Spearman made all its yardage on the ground for a 135 total.

Mike Podzemny received a War Eagle for a thrilling 39-yard pass reception. Likewise, quarterback Mike Swatzell received a War Eagle for the 39-yard pass. Cliff Prichard received two War Eagles, one for being top ground gainer and another for a 5.0 yards per carry average.

On defense, John Lewis received a War Eagle. Darrell Breitling received three War Eagles. Kelley Tinsley received two War Eagles, James Boyce and James Carlile received a War Eagle each.

Prichard, who has proved to be the Eagles workhorse in running, gained 88 yards in 23 carries. Wright carried eight times for 40 yards.

Breitling and Jeff Gunter were standouts on the Eagle defensive unit.

Breitling made two unassisted tackles, six first contacts and was in on 14 tackles. Gunter also made two unaided tackles. He was first man to make contact on four others and assisted in eight more. Frank Belcher made seven initial contacts and assisted on seven tackles.

Tinsley made one unassisted tackle, made initial contact on four and assisted on ten.

Bureau To Conduct Area Survey

The Census Bureau will conduct a poll on consumer buying and home improvement expectations in this area during October.

Mrs. Frances M. Cheek of Amarillo, census representative in the region, said the questions are asked four times annually.

A sample of residents in the area will be asked if they expect to buy a house, car or major appliance during the next year and if they have made recent purchases of these items. Homeowners will be asked about home improvements and repairs and any planned for the future.

Mrs. Cheek said information supplied by individuals participating in the survey is kept confidential by law and is published only in the form of statistical totals.

Confused Buff Play May Have Cost Game

Confusion on the final play of the game may have cost West Texas State University's Buffaloes a win in their season opener against Lamar Tech last weekend.

Head Coach Joe Kerbel told members of the Canyon Buffalo Touchdown Club Monday night that he doesn't know how the confusion occurred.

Kerbel said the play was the last play of the game, when the Buffs had the ball on the Lamar 1-foot line with less than 15 seconds on the clock.

The coach said the play he sent in to Quarterback Ed Holwig had worked all night for the Buffs and might have worked again. But, he said, another play was called.

As a result, Ramse Faleafine was unable to make it through the solid Cardinal line.

He singled out Holwig, who debuted in his varsity career Saturday night, as playing a good game.

"Rocky Thompson has improved tremendously," he said. "Olan Thompson is still hampered a bit. He has a pulled muscle and a sore toe."

In looking to the coming Saturday night's action, Kerbel predicted the Wichita State Shockers will be "loaded for bear." "We feel like they're a real good team," he said. "We'll have to play a great game to beat them."

"I think we'll play a good game," he said. "It'll be a challenge to see who can come out on top."

The Canyon version of the touchdown club will meet each Monday night following a Buffalo game at 6:30 p.m. in Buffalo Courts.

ENJOY THE MUSIC OF THE STATE'S BEST - THE EAGLE MARCHING BAND

Mrs. Don Wayne Maynard

Miss Dietz, Maynard Wed

Double ring vows were pledged by Miss Sandra Catherine Dietz and Don Wayne Maynard at 7 p.m. Saturday, September 19, in the Holy Name Catholic Church in Happy with Rev. M. Stortz officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Dietz of Happy. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H.E. Maynard of Happy.

Mrs. Albert Schoenenberger of Happy was organist for the processional "March Nuptials" and the recessional "Wedding March." She was accompanied by Mrs. Lonnie Todd of Happy, aunt of the groom, who sang "Mother at Your Feet is Kneeling" and "Wedding Prayer."

For the ceremony, there was a fifteen branch candelabra behind the altar flanked by baskets of pink mums and white baby mums. And the side altars were arrangements of pink mums and white baby mums.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal, floor length formal gown of Chantilly lace over bridal taffeta designed with a high neckline. Bouffant silhouette with a chapel train, and long Victorian sleeves. A small Dior bow highlighted with a seed pearl enhanced the neckline and waistline of the gown. Her veil of imported illusion, with a border of Chantilly lace, fell from a coif designed with peau de soie, seed pearls and sequins. She carried a mother of pearl prayer book of her mother's and a bouquet of three white orchids, baby roses and stephanotis.

For "something old" the bride carried a gold handkerchief that belonged to her great-grandmother. Her mother carried the same handkerchief at her wedding. For something new she wore a strand of pearls, a gift from the groom.

Miss Sharen Dietz, sister of the bride, served as maid of honor. She was attired in a floor length A-line dress of soft pink crepe with matching shoes. White wrist length gloves were worn and a headpiece of pink illusion attached to a Dior bow.

Miss Brenda Dietz, also sister of the bride, was the bridesmaid and wore a gown identical to the maid of honor. Both attendants carried nosegays of pink carnations with white and pink streamers.

Mark Maynard of Tulia served as best man. Glen Maynard of Houston was groomsman, both are brothers of the groom.

Randy Johnson and Wickey Culp served as ushers.

A reception followed the ceremony in Parish Hall. The table was decorated with a bouquet of pink mums and white baby mums.

Mrs. Neil McCarley, Miss Mary Lou Hancock and Miss Sue Wright served at the reception table. Mrs. Mark Maynard of Tulia, sister-in-law of the groom, presided at the guest book.

Other members in the houseparty were Miss Debbie Dietz, sister of the bride, and Miss Jackie Crabtree.

The couple will make their home at 2815 W. 27th in Amarillo.

Billy G. Evans, publicity chairman and Miss Ruth Cross, president of Canyon's Community Concert Association discuss plans for the final week's campaign with Mrs. Hilda Wilmore of the New York office. Mrs. Wilmore will be at the Concert Headquarters through Saturday noon of this week.

Series Drive Now In Final Week

Hunsley Hills was the site of the annual Community Concert workers banquet held Sunday with Mrs. Hilda Wilmore of Topeka, Kansas as honored guest.

Mrs. Wilmore works with the Community Concerts New York Office traveling in a seven state area during the membership campaign. She has worked for her own Community Concert season for twenty years and is currently vice president of the Topeka group.

The Concert's headquarters opened Monday at the Southwestern Public Service building and the drive for new members is now underway. The Concert headquarters is open from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m. through Friday and from 9 a.m. until noon on Saturday. Memberships may be purchased by calling 655-9392.

The concert board will meet Saturday afternoon to discuss Canyon's third offering for the 1970-71 season.

The concert series, which includes three concerts in Canyon and over 15 surrounding towns by reciprocity, is being sold for the membership sum of $10 for adults and $5 for students. No individual admissions are sold.

Two of Canyon's Community Concerts have been announced. Featured in an October 29 Concert will be Korean duo of violinist Ma-Si-Hon and his wife, pianist, Tung Kwong Kwong.

Canyon's second offering is the New York Woodwind Quintet scheduled for March 25. Both groups have performed throughout the United States, Europe, and the Far East.

Billy G. Evans, publicity chairman, announced that Plainview has scheduled William Walker for February 23 and Dan Shirley for March 1. Canyon members may attend these concerts by showing their membership cards. These were additions to the reciprocity list announced earlier.

Porcelain Club Paints With Winning Detail

Eighteen members of the Palo Duro Porcelain Art Club have painted thousands of China pieces during the three years that the club has been organized.

Eight of the members have taught sessions in china painting and many have won ribbons at the State and Tri-State fairs.

The Cinderella story for each piece of blank china begins with the selection from the china shop. The selection is hand painted with the china pain' ..d sometimes even burnished with 24 K gold.

The piece is then fired from 4 to 6 times at temperatures that range from 1300-1400 degrees to give the piece a permanent transparent glaze.

Most of the china used by the group is Oriental because it is hard; American china is too soft and usually creamy in color.

"We just don't have the recipe yet," Mrs. Jack Jennings joked.

The china pieces from Germany are very desirable, but more expensive, another club member noted.

Sixteen basic colors are used in the painting and variations of each run into the hundreds.

Some of the artists paint mostly in pastels, while others like the brighter shades. All of the women admitted that they had light, dark and bright pieces somewhere in their collection.

The paint comes in powder form and the women mix the dry paint with liquid mineral oil. All have their individual sets, though they do mix and borrow from each other at times.

The club brings in prominent out of state artists for club programs during the year.

This year the November program will feature Dorothy Jorski from Oklahoma City who will demonstrate techniques on "Birds."

Grace McIntosh, of Tyler, Texas will bring the October program on "Roses".

In December the club will have their annual Christmas Party. The main attraction of the affair is the exchanging of hand painted mugs by the members.

The topic for January 15 is "Banding Wheel," February 19 a program on "Leaves" will be given and on March 19 "Monochromes".

April 16 is reserved for Installation of officers, and May 21 "Scenes" will be covered. A two-week spring exhibit is being planned in the Bank of the Southwest for the last two weeks in May.

The group meets year round and has scheduled a program on "Gold Etching for June 18, "Grounding", July 16 and Velvet Grounding, August 20.

The meeting last week was a workshop with past president, Lorene Justiss demonstrating "Hawthorne Blossoms".

Mrs. Justiss gave each member a hand painted drop necklace upon leaving her office.

The club members spend many hours a week working on their pieces, even though the club only meets once a month.

Most of them give the skillfully done pieces for gifts on all occasions.

"I only give them to those who appreciate the time it takes to do a piece," Mrs. Lewis Morrison said, recalling the many hours it takes for each piece.

Across the table there were pieces to a tea service, jewelry boxes, bon bon dishes, plates, vases and an Easter egg. Each piece was an incomplete work of art in pastels, and rich shades from the various palettes.

"We paint anything and everything," Mrs. Lyn Bennett noted.

Mrs. Bennett has a complete service for twelve of hand painted china in her collection.

Others have lamps, mugs, vases and items for their kitchens and bathrooms. Some of the painters even do sets of tile, for the bath or ones with favorite recipes on them for the kitchen.

"I think by painting you become more aware of the things around you," sated Mrs. Nig Taylor of Happy. "Colors become more distinctive, too."

Each of the women in the group wore hand painted china pins to the meeting. Their name was written on the pin and it was decorated with the club's flowers, pastel daisies.

Present at Friday's meeting were Mrs. Nig Taylor of Happy; Mrs. Jack Jennings, of Canyon; Mrs. Flora Finegan, of Amarillo; Mrs. Harvey Todd of Amarillo; Mrs. J. M. Justiss of Claude; Mrs. Kenneth Erwin of Amarillo; Mary McClanahan of Amarillo; Mrs. Charles Donnell of Canyon; and Mrs. Lynn Bennett and Mrs. Lewis C. Morrison, who live northeast of Canyon.

The group meets at the Canyon Country Club every third Friday in the month.

Members of the Palo Duro Porcelain Club put their 'personality' on each delicate piece of china with different colors of paints and brush strokes. Pictured here from left to right are Mrs. Kenneth Erwin; Mrs. J.M. Justiss, Friday's speaker and past president; Mrs. Harvey Todd, Mrs. Flora Finegan, president; and Mrs. Jack Jennings.

Burlap Flower Making Proves Popular Here

BY CAROL CRAIN

Flowers that can withstand the Panhandle's winter wind have to be made of sturdy stuff, but Canyon's creative women have found the solution in a fabric called burlap.

The fabric once used for feed sacks, now comes in almost every color and costs about 69 cents a yard. A yard of 36" wide material will make about 4 flowers depending on the size of each.

A demonstration on the making of the flowers was given Tuesday at the meeting of the Palo Duro Rusk Home Demonstration Club. The group met in the Farm Bureau Building for a luncheon with members from the Westside group as their guests.

Mrs. Bill Thomas and Mrs. Floyd Oliver gave the instruction on the flower making.

Materials needed for the project include burlap in the flower's color, green burlap for the leaves, covered green wire, florist's tape, lightweight wire, white glue, straight pins, white chalk, and scissors.

Instructions are: first, cut the burlap in 8 inch lengths and pull out the thread starting from about ½ inch on both sides of the strip and work toward the center. The strip will only remain woven on either side and the middle will be very loose.

The flower's center is made by looping the "pulled" threads every 2½ inches, then wrapping thin wire around the base. The top "loops" are then clipped and trimmed to form a uniformed center.

The stem (the covered green wire) is cut the desired length and a hook is formed at one end. The stem is then pulled through the center and twisted until it is securely entwined in the threads. The burlap strip is then folded lengthwise with the unraveled ends together. The loose fold will form the petals when rolled carefully onto the flower's "center."The edges of the burlap strip should be kept even while rolling it across the bottom of the "center." Glue should be put on the fabric every 2 of 3 inches. Pins are then put around the base of the flower until the glue has dryed.

The leaves are cut from the green burlap and glued to brown paper the same shape. When the glue is dry, a thin green wire stem placed on back of the leaf and another burlap leaf is glued to the back of the first one.

A green burlap calyx is then cut with 8 petal points, and placed around the flower's base. Each petal point is then glued and pinned into place.

When the glue is dry, two leaves are attached and florist tape is wrapped around the stem to finish the flower.

The flower may be all one color or the center may contrast. Each 9" flower will cost about 35 cents to make.

Mrs. Bill Thomas and Mrs. Floyd Oliver gave a demonstration in burlap flower making Tuesday at the joint meeting of the Palo Duro Rusk and Westside Home Demonstration Clubs. Each flower costs about 35 cents to make.
